

Family Reporter Checklist

Your goal is to uncover previously unknown facts and fun family stories. Select some of the following questions to help get the conversation started.

Assembly Directions: Cut out desired notebook pages. Stack in desired order and staple together at top.

A stack of spiral-bound notebook pages. The top page is the cover, which has the word "WHO?" written in a bold, black, sans-serif font. Below the title, there is a question: "Name:" followed by a line, "How are we related? Is there an interesting family story about your name?" followed by a line, and "name?" followed by a line. The pages are lined.

WHAT?

Tell me about your favorite sports and hobbies, childhood experiences and/or favorite family memories.

This is a spiral-bound notebook with a header section containing the word "WHAT?" in bold. Below the header is a text prompt: "Tell me about your favorite sports and hobbies, childhood experiences and/or favorite family memories." The rest of the page is filled with horizontal lines for writing.

WHERE?

Tell me about your hometown, places you have visited, or towns you have lived in.

This is a spiral-bound notebook with a header section containing the word "WHERE?" in bold. Below the header is a text prompt: "Tell me about your hometown, places you have visited, or towns you have lived in." The rest of the page is filled with horizontal lines for writing.

WHEN?

What was your favorite subject to study when you were younger?

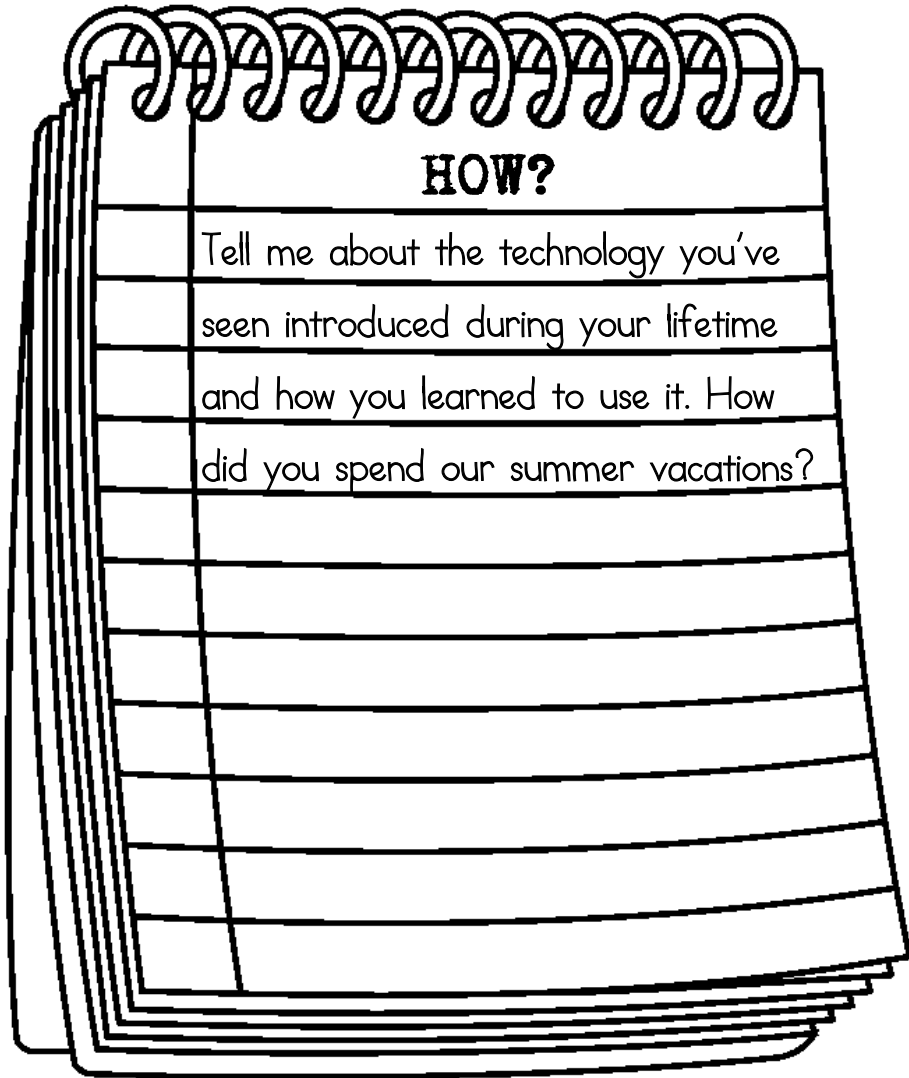

What pets did you have when you were a child?

This notebook has a spiral binding at the top and a grid of horizontal lines for writing. The first two rows contain the questions, and the remaining rows are blank.

WHY?

Why did you choose your current career? Did you go to college or enter the military?

This notebook has a spiral binding at the top and a grid of horizontal lines for writing. The first row contains the question, and the remaining rows are blank.

HOW?

Tell me about the technology you've seen introduced during your lifetime and how you learned to use it. How did you spend our summer vacations?

